Approved For Release 2007/03/28: CA-RDP91-00682R000200120146-9

Journal

Office of Legislative Counsel

Thursday - 3 February 1955

3. Mr. Reynolds, AD/Personnel, and I talked with Mr. Gleason, Administrative Assistant to Sen. Knowland, about the case of We pointed out that had taken certain steps, such as resigning his job and selling his furniture, following an alleged telephone call from a "Mr. Scott" who had called him from a CIA phone. had not 25X1. 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A			that a subcommittee had been keeping a close check upon the operations and activities of CIA in the past, but that this activity had not been publicized.
3. Mr. Reynolds, AD/Personnel, and I talked with Mr. Gleason, Administrative Assistant to Sen. Knowland, about the case of We pointed out that had taken certain steps, such as resigning his job and selling his furniture, following an alleged telephone call from a "Mr. Scott" who had called him from a CIA phone. had not 25X1 met anyone here by the name of "Mr. Scott" and a search of our Personnel has failed to reveal such a person either Mr. Reynolds told Mr. Gleason that doubtless some enthusiastic CIA employee had erred in this matter, although we had been unable to fix the blame, but that demand for $1,681 ($681 for out-of-pocket expenses and $1,000 for embarrassment) could not be allowed in view of Comptroller General's decisions requiring a Government employee to bring himself to his first post of duty and the absence of any official notification to Administrative Assistant to Sen. Knowland, about the case of We pointed out that had taken certain steps, such as resigning his job and selling his furniture, following an alleged telephone call from a "Mr. Scott" who had called him from a CIA phone. had not 25X1, met anyone here by the name of "Mr. Scott" and a search of our Personnel has failed to reveal such a person either Mr. 25X1 Reynolds told Mr. Gleason that doubtless some enthusiastic CIA employee had erred in this matter, although we had been unable to fix the blame, but that demand for $1,681 ($681 for out-of-pocket expenses and $1,000 for embarrassment) could not be allowed in view of Comptroller General's decisions requiring a Government employee to bring himself to his first post of duty and the absence of any official notification to		L	2 Mar Day 11 AD /D	」 _25X1A
We pointed out that had taken certain steps, such as resigning his job and selling his furniture, following an alleged telephone call from a "Mr. Scott" who had called him from a CIA phone had not 25X1, met anyone here by the name of "Mr. Scott" and a search of our Personnel has failed to reveal such a person either Mr. 25X1 Reynolds told Mr. Gleason that doubtless some enthusiastic CIA employee had erred in this matter, although we had been unable to fix the blame, but that demand for $1,681 ($681 for out-of-pocket expenses and $1,000 for embarrassment) could not be allowed in view of Comptroller General's decisions requiring a Government employee to bring himself to his first post of duty and the absence of any official notification to				_
job and selling his furniture, following an alleged telephone call from a "Mr. Scott" who had called him from a met anyone here by the name of "Mr. Scott" and a search of our Personnel has failed to reveal such a person either Mr. 25X1 Reynolds told Mr. Gleason that doubtless some enthusiastic CIA employee had erred in this matter, although we had been unable to fix the blame, but that demand for $1,681 ($681 for out-of-pocket expenses and $1,000 for embarrassment) could not be allowed in view of Comptroller General's decisions requiring a Government employee to bring himself to his first post of duty and the absence of any official notification to	25X1A
Scott" who had called him from a met anyone here by the name of "Mr. Scott" and a search of our Personnel has failed to reveal such a person either Mr. 25X1 Reynolds told Mr. Gleason that doubtless some enthusiastic CIA employee had erred in this matter, although we had been unable to fix the blame, but that demand for $1,681 ($681 for out-of-pocket expenses and $1,000 for embarrassment) could not be allowed in view of Comptroller General's decisions requiring a Government employee to bring himself to his first post of duty and the absence of any official notification to	20/(1/(
met anyone here by the name of "Mr. Scott" and a search of our Personnel has failed to reveal such a person either Reynolds told Mr. Gleason that doubtless some enthusiastic CIA employee had erred in this matter, although we had been unable to fix the blame, but that demand for $1,681 ($681 for out-of-pocket expenses and $1,000 for embarrassment) could not be allowed in view of Comptroller General's decisions requiring a Government employee to bring himself to his first post of duty and the absence of any official notification to	25X1A	X	Scott' who had called him from a CIA phone. had not	25X1A
Reynolds told Mr. Gleason that doubtless some enthusiastic CIA employee had erred in this matter, although we had been unable to fix the blame, but that demand for $1,681 ($681 for out-of-pocket expenses and $1,000 for embarrassment) could not be allowed in view of Comptroller General's decisions requiring a Government employee to bring himself to his first post of duty and the absence of any official notification to		~ 10	met anyone here by the name of 'Mr. Scott' and a search of our Personnel erred in this matter, although we had been unable to fix the blame, but that demand for $1,681 ($681 for out-of-pocket expenses and $1,000 for embarrassment) could not be allowed in view of Comptroller General's decisions requiring a Government employee to bring himself to his first post of duty and the absence of any official notification to	25X1A			25X1A
$1,000 for embarrassment) could not be allowed in view of Comptroller General's decisions requiring a Government employee to bring himself to his first post of duty and the absence of any official notification to	20/(1/(
$1,000 for embarrassment) could not be allowed in view of Comptroller General's decisions requiring a Government employee to bring himself to his first post of duty and the absence of any official notification to
General's decisions requiring a Government employee to bring himself to his first post of duty and the absence of any official notification to				25X1A first post of duty and the absence of any official notification to of his appointment.			first post of duty and the absence of any official notification to of his appointment.	